

'QUEEN' CRISTINA ON 1ST EMMY

By MICHAEL STARR

June 26, 2008

A week after "Cristina's Court" was the surprise winner of this year's best court show Emmy, host Cristina Perez still can't get over it.

"I was in complete and utter shock – and I still am," she says.

"I just figured it was going to be a no-brainer – that 'Judge Judy' was going to win."

Cristina is keeping the Emmy on the mantel in her living room.

"It's sitting next to my daughter Sofia's T-ball trophy, which she got about two weeks ago because she was a go-getter and never complained," she says.

The statue "doesn't really go with the décor," she says, "but who cares?"